NEW LAWS OF TEXAS

The Measures Passed at the Twenty-Seventh Session.

FEW TO BE APPROVED

A Majority of the Acts Have Become Law Without the Signature of the Governor—Some of the Acts Are Important.

Austin, April 15.—The Twenty-seventh legislature which adjourned last Tuesday after being in session since the second week in January disposed of many bills and resolutions. Most of the measures have become law without the approval of the governor. There are a number yet to be acted upon by the governor, which he must either veto, sign or allow to become law by going to the secretary of state without approval. April 29 is the late date the governor will have to veto measures. All measures take effect from passage, except those designated.

Besides the following there were bills passed authorizing the consolidation of several railroads, changing charters of towns and cities, more efficient road laws in certain counties and acts as to time of holding courts extending jurisdiction, etc.:

An act authorizing the release of all interest which the state or the Confederate Home may have acquired under the will of J. H. Allen, deceased, in certain lands.

An act regulating the termination of the fiscal year and making the end on August 31 of each year.

An act appropriating $110,000 to pay mileage and per diem of the Twenty-seventh legislature.

An act making an appropriation for the contingent expenses of the Twenty-seventh legislature.

An act providing for a mineral survey of the lands belonging to the university, schools and asylums of the state, also providing for the assaying of minerals. The act carries an appropriation of $10,000 a year.

An act appropriating $200,000 for the erection and maintenance of an epileptic asylum at Abilene.

An act reorganizing the ranger force and providing that all members thereof may make arrests and serve process in criminal cases.

An act granting a pension of $150 a year to Mary E. Hatchelder, surviving widow of Mexican war veteran.

An act authorizing bond and surety companies having deposits in the state treasury to exchange cash for securities or vice versa.

An act appropriating $15,000 for the establishment of a home for the idiots and imbeciles in connection with the Abilene epileptic asylum, effective July 7, 1901.

Providing penalties for violation of the governor's quarantine proclamations.

Providing for the extension of the iron pipeworks and the continued operation of the iron furnace at the Rusk penitentiary, effective July 7, 1901.

Extending until October, 1901, the time in which claims may be filed on account of the Spanish American war and appropriating $12,000 for the purpose of paying same.

Establishing the merit system for officers and employees of the penitentiaries and providing a graduating scale of wages based upon term of service and upon merit.

Providing for quarantine in counties against infectious and contagious diseases, providing that the county shall pay one-third and the state two-thirds of the expense of maintaining same.

Memorializing congress to submit an amendment to the constitution of the United States providing for the election of senators by direct vote of the people.

Appropriating $1000 for the erection of a vault for the remains of the Meir prisoners at LaGrange.

An act amending the act of the Twenty-sixth legislature, establishing the North Texas Normal school at Denton.

Establishing the Southwest Texas Normal school at San Marcos, appropriating $25,000 for the erection of a building and $10,000 for maintenance, effective July 7, 1901.

Providing for a four years' college course of classical and scientific studies at Prairie View Normal and Industrial college. Graduates of the normal school shall be admitted without examination and others upon examination. Effective July 7, 1901.

Authorizing the board of education to invest the permanent school fund in the bonds of independent school districts. Effective July 7, 1901.

Providing that the observation of legal holidays shall be discretionary with the board of trustees of schools. Effective July 7, 1901.

Permitting independent school districts to be formed out of parts of two counties.

Providing for the establishment of a girls' industrial school and appropriating $50 for that purpose.

Providing for the granting of permanent certificates to be good in the counties where issued to teachers who have been in service for 15 years continuously.

To prohibit trafficking in teachers' examination questions, and providing a penalty therefor.

Providing for the payment of teachers who taught in Greer county in 1895 and appropriating $4000 for that purpose.

Authorizing boards of school trustees of independent school districts outside of cities to appoint one of their number to act as assessor and collector of school taxes.

To amend the law providing for the curriculum in public schools by adding Texas and United States history thereto. Effective July 7, 1901.

Authorizing independent school districts to issue bonds for the purpose of purchasing school building sites and erecting buildings.

To provide for incorporation of mutual fire insurance companies and placing them under the jurisdiction of the insurance commissioner. Be effective July 1.

Authorizing the refunding of county bonds issued since Jan. 1, 1895, and providing for the cancellation of the old bonds.

Licensing physicians and surgeons, and to regulate the practice of medicine. Effective July 7, 1901.

Amending the statutes relating to corporations so as to provide for the organization of fruit, vegetable and tobacco companies; for the organization of companies to own lands in other states and countries; to provide for the organization of exchanges, with authority to deal in the stocks of mining companies, and to provide for the incorporation of the business of undertaker and embalmer. Effective July 7, 1901.

Extending the provision of the mechanics' lien law such lien to have effect only when executed in writing.

Prescribing the weight for a bushel of the following named articles: peaches 50 pounds, tomatoes 55 pounds, apples 45 pounds.

Regulating bottling works and prescribing penalties for false labeling. Effective July 7, 1901.

Protecting domesticated birds. Effective July 7, 1901.

Amending the game law so as to prohibit the shooting of ducks, geese and other wild aquatic fowl, at night in Harris, Jefferson, Galveston, Brazoria, Matagorda, Nueces, Aransas, Refugio, Lavaca, San Patricio, Cameron, Hidalgo and Calhoun counties. Effective July 7, 1901.

Amending the law regulating the bond of liquor dealers, so as to make the penalties for selling liquor to minors attach, when such sale has been made "knowingly" to a minor. Effective July 7, 1901.

Defining a legal fence. Three strands of barbed wire, the top at least four feet from the ground, posts 30 feet apart, with one or more stays between them; or pickets four feet and not more than four inches apart; when boards or rails are used there shall not be less than three boards not less than five inches wide and one inch thick, or four rails; all fences to be not less than four feet high. Effective July 7, 1901.

THE GREAT REVIVAL.

The Stuart meeting Sunday had the benefit of perfect weather. The morning dawned with the church spires pointing towards a cloudless sky. The fresh spring flowers nodded in the breeze and scattered abroad their grateful perfume. The birds gave voices to the leafing trees, and the hearts of christian men and women seemed attuned to the harmony of nature and at peace with God. A more glorious Sabbath never brought rest to a tired world.

The great tent was packed at the morning service. People poured in from the surrounding country, and every available space was occupied by an attentive listener. Before the sermon begun Rev. Geo. Stuart asked all who had been blessed in the meeting to stand up and fully 500 almost simultaneously rose to their feet. The text was from Genesis xviii, 19, "For I know him, that he will command his children and his household after him, and they shall keep the way of the Lord, to do justice and judgement: that the Lord may bring upon Abraham that which he has spoken of him." Rev. Stuart said he was not here to deal in personalities, but he was here to create Christian sentiment, purify the church membership and lead sinners to Christ. Gladstone said Christianity would solve all questions, social, moral and political, and the preacher added that the American home is the pivot of the American nation, and in it every child should receive the proper training. The sermon was a plea for home authority and home influence. God is all right for the divine side, and the hope of this country is the proper performance of our duty on the human side. At the close of the service hundreds of fathers and mothers stood up and pledged themselves to try and live right in the home, and hundreds went forward for prayer, numbering among them gray-haired men who have made no pretensions to religion.

When the congregation was dismissed the people of the city opened their homes to the visitors from the surrounding country and endeavored to return the generous hospitality for which the people of old Brazos county, in their homes and at their basket dinners, have been famous. A notable thing about the meeting is that the people of all the churches and of the town and county have been drawn closer together, and above all there has been no semblance of denominational friction or jealousy.

A great experience meeting was conducted at the tent by Rev. E. L. Shettles at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon and many words of encouragement were spoken by those who have been benefitted and blessed in the meeting. Many pledged themselves to more earnest and consecrated efforts for the salvation of souls.

Sunday night 3000 people assembled to hear George Stuart's masterful and terrible arraignment of the liquor traffic with its train of myriad evils and rivers of blood and tears. The text was from Hab. ii, 12, 15:

"Woe unto him that buildeth a town with blood, and establisheth a city by iniquity!"

"Woe unto him that giveth his neighbor drink, that putteth thy bottle to him, and maketh him drunken also, that thou mayest look on their nakedness!"

The speaker charged the liquor traffic with the political and social evils of the nation, and the poverty, ignorance, shame and crime that stalk abroad in the land. He declared it to be the bane of prosperity, the destroyer of wealth, the instrument of poverty, famine and nakedness, the death of the body and the eternal damnation of the soul. Yet in all the bitterness and strength of his denunciation, no word of personal attack was made upon the saloon man. The argument was pitched upon a plane entirely above personalities and made a profound and lasting impression.

The harvest time of the meeting has come. The whole town has been shaken from center to circumference. After the sermon yesterday morning, in which the preacher made plain the simple process of salvation, there were, upon a conservative estimate, two hundred public professions of faith, and as many more gave their hands renewing their vows and obligations. No one will hazard an opinion of the far reaching effects of the revival.

IMPORTANT COUNCIL MEETING

A Busy Session Held Monday Afternoon
—Mayor's Proclamation.

The council met in regular session, Mayor J. S. Mooring presiding, and L. S. Eitz acting secretary.

The minutes and other unfinished business was disposed of, including bills and officers' reports.

The fiscal agent's report of April 12 shows balances as follows:

School fund.....$2483 29
Special building fund.....$313 34
Waterworks fund.....1978 38
Cemetery fund.....52 54
Building and street fund... 543 67
Street appropriation fund... 5784 70
Tax and fine fund.....527 29

The finance committee reported the books and accounts of the retiring secretary approved.

The returns of the late city election were canvassed and the result declared.

At this juncture the old council adjourned and the newly elected officers were installed as follows: T. P. Boyett, marshal; C. M. Spell, secretary; W. S. Howell, W. R. R. Johnston, D. B. Knox, aldermen.

M. G. Nall, acting as secretary, read the following message from the mayor:

To the City Officers, Bryan, Texas.

Gentlemen:—At the beginning of this our new official year, I wish to express my appreciation of the amicable relation that has existed between us the past twelve months, and hope for a continuance of the same, and extend a hearty welcome to our new members.

In some things I feel that we have been remiss; have shut our eyes to the enforcement of some laws that the solemn obligations we took upon assuming office made incumbent upon us to attend to. I am with you heart and soul for the suppression of immorality of every kind. I want to see our town purer and cleaner and believe that you all share with me in this wish; and by the faithful performance of our duty we can accomplish much in this direction.

Let us put our hands to the plow and, without looking back or aside, do what we feel to be right in the sight of God and man.

Gentlemen, the matter is in your hands. I thank you for your kindness, patience and courtesy.

J. S. Mooring, Mayor.

H. O. Boatright was re-elected fiscal agent.

J. A. Myers, A. M. Rhodes, W. T. James and M. W. Sims were elected school trustees.

W. A. Reed was appointed deputy marshal.

Appropriate resolutions were adopted commending Mr. John D. Conlee, the retiring deputy marshal, for the faithful performance of his duties.

T. H. Spell was appointed city sexton.

The proposition for getting out a city directory, naming and numbering the streets, was presented to the council and discussed, but no action was taken.

The mayor announced committees as follows:

Finance—Howell and Knox.

Street—Parker and Johnston.

Water and Light—Johnston and Knox.

Cemetery—Tabor and Johnston.

Fire—Tabor and Howell.

W. A. Reed was sworn in as deputy marshal.

SHE MUST PAY $500.

Besides She Is Given Only a Few Hours
to Leave—All This Was for Blocking the Streets on Sunday Evening.

Kansas City, April 15.—Mrs. Carrie Nation, arrested Sunday, charged with obstructing the street, was arraigned before Police Judge McAuley this morning, fined $500 and given until 6 o'clock to leave the city. The judge warned Mrs. Nation that if she was found in the city after that hour she would be arrested and placed in jail. She agreed to leave the city and 15 minutes later boarded a streetcar for Kansas City, Kas. In delivering judgment the court said:

"Missouri atmosphere is not adopted for long-haired men, short-haired women and whistling girls."

The crowd clapped loudly at the decision.

The fine will be held over Mrs. Nation in case she should return to the city, and until released from the court's order, she is practically barred from visiting Kansas City.

Mrs. Nation pleaded she wished to go to Liberty, Mo., within a few days, and asked that she be permitted to pass through Kansas City en route. Judge McAuley answered in the affirmative, but warned Mrs. Nation not to stop off here.

Mrs. Nation Arrested.

Kansas City, April 15.—Mrs. Carrie Nation was arrested in this city Sunday night on the charge of obstructing the street. She was taken to the police station in a patrol wagon but was released on a cash bond of $5. She started down the street, a great crowd followed and she was arrested for blocking the street.

BOERS NOT WHIPPED.

Their Chance for Winning Better Now
Than That of the British.

Washington, April 15.—Captain John A. Hassell, who commanded the American scouts in the Boer army in the first part of the war, but who is now here, says:

"The Boer cause, while it cannot be said to be bright, is brighter than that of the British. The Boers have just as good a chance to win now as the Americans had before the sudden turn of good luck which resulted in the surrender of Cornwallis.

"The winter season has just begun in South Africa, and from now until September the British soldiers will have a hard time.

"The Boers are making their winter quarters in the Lydenburg range, where the English will not dare tackle them, for they would have to cross the low, marshy country to get there and they have to import every pound of fodder for their horses. The problem is not only one of sustaining the lives of their men in the marshy veldt, where chills and marsh fever wind up in deadly pneumonia, but it is a problem of sustaining horseflesh.

"I lived 13 years in South Africa and know all the country better than any Boer did before the war broke out, my business, that of an engineer, carrying me over all of it. It is hard for the Boers to get recruits, but valuable ones are getting in every day. For every Boer killed by the English nowadays half a dozen recruits straggle in from this country and elsewhere.

"The Boers do not propose to fight any pitched battle at present. They will simply worry the enemy everywhere they can and about September you may look for a resumption of general action on a large scale."

French Reported Captured.

London, April 15.—It is said a private telegram has been received that General French with 500 British troops have been captured by the Boers while his force was enveloped in the mist on the hills. No confirmation of the report can be obtained.

The war office here knows nothing about the rumored capture of General French and entirely discredits the reports.

QUESTION ANSWERED.

Yes, August Flower still has the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your mothers' and grandmothers' never thought of using anything else for Indigestion or Billiousness. Doctors were scarce, and they seldom heard of Appendicitis, Nervous Prostration or Heart failure, etc. They used August Flower to clean out the system and stop fermentation of undigested food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate the nervous and organic action of the system, and that is all they took when feeling dull and bad with headaches and other aches. You only need a few doses of Green's August Flower, in liquid form, to make you satisfied there is nothing serious the matter with you. Get Green's Prize Almanac. For sale by Wilson-Jenkins Drug Co.

Announcement of the Colorado Chautauqua.

The Fourth Annual Session of the Colorado Chautauqua will open on July 4, 1901, and will continue until August 10th. Complete preparations are being made for the most successful assembly the Chautauqua has ever known. Attention is called to the following points:

The opportunity presented at Boulder for health, recreation, entertainment and instruction.

The unequalled location, climate, scenery and natural advantages of the region.

The merit of the musical and platform attractions.

The variety and practical scope of the educational departments.

The delightful mountain excursions, two days each week under competent guides, through the grandest scenery of the continent.

These are only a few of the advantages offered to patrons by this prince of summer assemblies. The musical, social and educational attractions are too comprehensive to be described in the space at our command. The Chautauqua Journal, room 716 Cooper Building, Denver, Colo., presents the work of the assembly in detail and a sample copy will be sent to any person applying. The Journal is published monthly and contains many interesting features relating to the mountains and mountain life.

OLD LOUISIANA BONDS.

Effort Made to Settle Some Captured During the Civil War.

Washington, April 15.—The treasury department and the authorities of the state of Louisiana are trying to secure a final settlement of the old Louisiana state bonds. These bonds, originally amounting to $4,475,000, were confiscated by General P. H. Sheridan, at Shreveport, La., on July 12, 1865, but as the capture occurred after war had officially ended, the national government has never claimed title to them.

From time to time, upon identification by the proper state officers, certain certificates have been delivered, until value of those remaining in the treasury is now not more than $545,000.

Recently one of the Louisiana representatives in congress became interested in the state's claim and called upon the treasurer to furnish him a complete statement about the certificates which have been turned over to the state treasurer. It has developed in this investigation that a number of the bonds, amounting to several hundred thousand dollars for which the national treasury holds descriptive receipts, are apparently missing from the state treasury. Until they can be found, it is not likely that Louisiana will make formal demand for the remaining bonds known to be in the vaults of the treasury department.

There is some mystery as to the whereabouts of the missing bonds. It would appear that they had been misappropriated by some state officer but officials call attention to the fact that at the time of their confiscation many of Louisiana's state records were destroyed and removed. It may be that the bonds supposed to be lost were returned within a few months after they were captured, and not accurately recorded. The state authorities will be fully advised of all the facts, so that they can make a more thorough search. The description of the missing certificates has been withheld for the present by the department.

Shields Talks With Henderson.
Dallas, April 15.—County Attorney George W. Shields of Omaha, Neb., accompanied by Sheriff J. Roll Johnson, went to the jail Sunday morning and had a meeting with H. C. Henderson with reference to his alleged complicity in the kidnapping of young Cudahy. Attorney Shields said he has come to no conclusion but that he would have another talk with Henderson.

May Go to Dallas.
Omaha, April 15.—E. A. Cudahy says that his going to Dallas, Tex., would depend entirely on the result of County Attorney Shields' visit to that city in connection with the alleged confession of H. C. Henderson to complicity in the abduction of young Cudahy last December. Should it become practically certain that Henderson was one of the kidnapers Mr. Cudahy and his son will leave for Dallas during the present week, when the young man will attempt to identify Henderson.

Editor Mayer Dead.
